Subject: Promised Urgent meeting with Alberta Justice Minister -FOURTH REQUEST - MEDIA NOTICE

Importance: High

To all concerned,

It is clear that Alberta Justice and all the Ministers are determined to cover up what they have been notified of by willfully ignoring the evidence that was presented in person to MLA Boitchenko and MLA Haji.

As a retired Police Officer, I have to ask why this government is treating the lives of Albertans with such contempt and why the Justice Minister is willing to be complicit in crimes?

MLA Boitchenko, you made very specific promises IN WRITING. Why are you not following up on this considering what you have directly seen and in your words you considered a crime?

When can I expect the promised two hour meeting to present the evidence viewed by my MLA's?

Note that I will be at the Alberta Legislature grounds from 12:30 pm to 2:30pm tomorrow Friday 3rd, November 2023.

Thank you for your response.

I was travelling this last week and at the legislature building all day yesterday (see attached) so have only just received this.

However, It has now been almost three weeks since Parliamentary Secretary and MLA Andrew Boitchenko brought this to the attention of your office as an urgent matter. The title "Constituent Concern" and "A representative from our ministry will be in contact with you shortly" give me cause for concern, especially as I have still not received any indication of timing for a meeting. The items that have been brought to your attention have now reached critical importance due to escalating matters which are putting the lives of Albertans at stake yet again.

With respect, can I please have confirmation of a contact, a specific time and details of the meeting as a matter of urgency. Time is of the Essence.

Yours,

David
